

Burgundy & Jura

Burgundy and Jura are the spiritual homes of the nation's two greatest passions: food and wine. The regions' culinary trademarks include rich bœuf bourguignon, tasty Comté cheese and garlic escargots (snails), while their numerous vineyards produce some of the world's most guzzled red and whites – from the popular Chardonnay of Chablis to the finest Pinot Noir of the Côte d'Or. Salut!

But this corner of France isn't just about tickling the tastebuds. Oh no. Explore the stunning medieval hospital in Beaune or the imposing Gothic cathedral in Vezelay. Wander the quaint cobblestone streets of Semur-en-Auxois or sample the many Renaissance titbits of mustard capital Dijon. Experience hilltop walking in the rolling green landscapes of Nièvre, or try cross-country skiing in the forested peaks of the Jura Mountains. Or why not combine your exercise with a little alcoholic refreshment... hire a bike in Mâcon and head into the Beaujolais vineyards. Now that's a holiday!

A quiet village high in the Jura Mountains

SEE. DO. EAT.

SEE. Spend a day in lively, historic and cultural Dijon, one of the country's prettiest provincial cities

DO. Try your hand at cross-country skiing through forest in the Jura... or simply watch the pros in action

EAT. Stuff yourself silly with bœuf bourguignon then wash it all down with a refreshing glass of Chablis

A PERFECT DAY by our regional manager

Start with a little shopping in the lovely French market of Dijon – the place to pick up all your cheese, meat, wine and, of course, mustard! Then head south to charming Beaune and take a walk around the historic centre... including the stunning Hotel-Dieu! Finish your day, inevitably, with a glass of red wine.

Guestbook

What our customers said...

“This 18th-century stone cottage is an ideal peaceful retreat and makes the perfect base for touring the most renowned vineyards of Burgundy.”
